Neighbor Duffy made an interesting talk and told of the great achievements of the order and that the claims of all members who are in the military service are paid in full without the costs of any extra assess-ments. He also said that the aim of the order this year was to procure one hundred thousand new members for the order and so far that over 70,-900 had already been secured. The camp appointed the following execucommittee to act in connection with the other camps in arranging the class adoption, B. F. Jeter, E. J. Campbell and Chas. W. Maddox.

After the meeting the members lined up on the south side of the square headed by the Forester drill team and marched around the square and then to the Fisk Opera House, where the "Value of a Life" and "Who is My Neighbor" was shown. There were 110 Neighbor Woodmen in the procession and it was a splen-did sight composing the highest and best element of the citizenship of

At the Opera House the three reels of high class motion pictures em-braced an interesting exposition of the workings of the great order with more than one million members. The various scenes showed the Head Offices at Rock Island, the Sanitar-ium in Colorado and the Head Camp at Chicago and the Forester encamp-

Peace Nearer, Mile by Mile.

London, Sept. 13 .- Notwithstanding the declination of Germany's peace offer, Count Von Hertling, the German chancellor, is convinced that peace is nearer than is generally suppeace is nearer than is generally supposed, according to an address, made by the chancellor before the trades unionist leaders in Germany, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen.

The chancellor declared that both the German government and army leaders desire an understanding and

Count Von Hertling said the government and the army leaders were against all conqueats.

As soon as he was convinced of the impossibility of an agreement with the upper house on the suffrage question, the chancellor said he would dissolve the lower house.
